Visitors may enter the Republic of Cyprus through the International airports of Larnaca and Pafos. The I

Car Driving

Cyprus has fairly good asphalted roads complying with international traffic requirements, which link Ped

Minor roads and forest roads, still unsurfaced, are widespread throughout Cyprus, which are in fairly go

Visitors can drive in Cyprus provided they possess either an international driving license or their nationa

Petrol can be bought ιn Pedoulas. Petrol stations are equipped with petrol vending machines. Service is

Traffic in Cyprus moves on the left hand-side of the road. International road signs are in use and are pla

Distances frm Pedoulas in km

Nicosia (via Marathasa valley): 78
Nicosia (via Troodos): 78
Larnaka: 121
Larnaka Airport: 125
Limassol: 51
Pafos: 65
Pafos Airport: 55
Agia Napa (via Nicosia): 138
Troodos: 13
Kykkos: 22
Prodromos: 3

Picnic Sites

There is one picnic site, Marathos, lying in the administrative area of Pedoulas. It is situatd 6 km fom the

Food and Drink

There are many restaurants and cafes in Pedoulas, which provide excellent local dishes and deserts. Al

Health Matters

Pedoulas has a very healthy climate and water is safe to drink even from the spring. You can find cheap

Suggested Clothing

Some information concerning clothing during the whole year is afforded herebelow

December-January: It is the winter time with snow during winter months. Tourists are advised to have wi

February-March: Cold days are a common phenomenon. Winter clothing is also advised.

April-May: Quite warm days, though temperatures may fall considerable at night. Woollies for the evenin

June-July-August: Summer time with warm temperatures. Lightweight clothing is recommended.

September-October: Warm days with cool October evenings. Lightweight clothing for the day and mediu

November: Pleasantly cold days. Medium-weight clothing with woollies.

Electrical Current-Voltage

The electricity suply in Cyprus is 240 vols, 50 cycles A.C. Plugs are usually5amp, square-pin in most ne